

Year 1 : Beginnings

Matthew	Numbers	Psalms Book III	Hebrews
Genesis	1 Timothy	1 John	Psalms Book IV
Romans	Joshua	2 John	2 Timothy
Exodus	Titus	3 John	Philemon
Galatians	John	Jude	Revelation
			Psalms Book V

“And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.” (Luke 24:27, NIV) The whole Bible is a book about Jesus; the Old Testament points to Him and the New Testament explains and applies His appearing. Paul tells us that “all Scripture is God-breathed and is useful” (2 Tim 3:16, NIV) but for many Christians many parts of the Bible are hazy at best and others a complete mystery.

This Bible Reading Scheme is designed to be a catalyst to get us stuck into the whole Bible. The scheme runs over three years to give you more time to study the passage of the day. No Old Testament reading is longer than two pages and the New Testament is given more time. This works by following the scheme six days a week and doing something different on the seventh day. If you’re a student starting the scheme in November, reading it seven days a week will mean you’ll have read the whole Bible by the time you hit exam season in your third year.

Over the three years you’ll follow the Bible’s story in a roughly chronological order, books that were written around that time are included around the narrative. New Testament sections are grouped together as well, giving each year a different feel.

Year 2 : Kingdoms

Mark	2 Samuel	2 Kings	Hosea
Judges	Psalms Book 2	Isaiah	2 Corinthians
1 Corinthians	1 Kings	Ecclesiastes	Joel
Ruth	Amos	Philippians	Zephaniah
1 Samuel	Proverbs	Nahum	Habakkuk
Psalms Book 1	Jonah	Job	Song of Solomon

For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. (2 Corinthians 1:20, NIV)

The second year takes you through from the period of the judges to right through to beginning of the Exile. This means the bulk of the Old Testament passages are in the period of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

We see the best and the worst of the people of Israel; from a point in the book of Judges when they are no better than Sodom and Gomorrah, to the heights of the Kingdom under Solomon. We see God fulfilling his promises to Abraham and then to David as God sovereignly controls the course of history.

The other Old Testament books are also from this period such as the prophetic books of Amos and Joel. There are also books written by people in the book of Kings such as Psalms books 1 & 2, many of which were written by King David, and Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon written by King Solomon.

In the New Testament passages you look at Mark's Gospel & Paul's writings to some of the churches especially the troubled church in Corinth.

Year 3 : Exiles

Luke	2 Thessalonians	Lamentations	Ezekiel
Deuteronomy	Micah	Daniel	2 Peter
Acts	2 Chronicles	Colossians	Ezra
Leviticus	James	Esther	Nehemiah
1 Thessalonians	Jeremiah	Obadiah	Haggai
1 Chronicles	Ephesians	1 Peter	Zechariah
			Malachi

And he made known to us the mystery of his will... to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfillment—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ. (Ephesians 1:9-10, NIV)

The third year takes you back for a recap of where you've been before looking at the period during and after the exile.

This means you'll look at Deuteronomy on the edge of the promised land, Leviticus (the graveyard of Bible reading schemes, but you're two and a bit years in now so don't give in!) and 1 & 2 Chronicles which look again at the period of kings. The focus of the year, though, is on the accounts during the exile such as Daniel and Esther and then after with Nehemiah and Ezra.

Again the prophetic books are from around this period and include ones written after the return from exile.

In the New Testament section you look mainly at Luke's accounts of Jesus and the early church, but also some of the so called 'catholic' epistles, ones that were written to the whole church, and also some of Paul's letters to individual churches.
